

350 Club Wine Notes

Craig McMurry (269) 372-4614 or the Butler Pantry (269) 857-4875

Below are descriptions of the wines that we have tasted, plan on ordering or think deserve inclusion.

There are times when the winemaker captures the essence of their wine, or a wine magazine reviews a wine, and we concede to their description.

After the description of a wine there are notations in parentheses that reference the name of the distributor

All wines below can be ordered from the distributors with minimum order requirements, and you can also request a special order of your favorite wine.

Legend for the wholesale bottle price: Under $15.00 ($), $30.00 ($$), $50.00 ($$$), $100.00 ($$$$), and over $100.00 ($$$$$)

Wines with a wholesale price over $100.00, allocated, or distinctive wines are subject to different pricing.

Argentina

SALTA

(Northwest Argentina)

Terrazas de los Andes Malbec Single Vineyard: This wine has an intense red plum color; the wine is smooth but also displays spicy notes, and there is a slight effervescence along with the finish. This is a polished Malbec and is very elegant. (GL), $$$$

Enjoy with red meat.

Terrazas de los Andes Torrontes Reserve, Salta: The Torrontes grape is a white grape indigenous to Argentina. The grape can have a high minerality, but this wine is aromatic and stands out with a freshness and intensity which is very distinctive, with a mild minerality. (GL), $

Enjoy with appetizers and spicy Asian dishes.

Mendoza

Catena Zapata, Nicasta Vineyard, Malbec, Mendoza, Argentina: An exceptional Malbec. (GL), $$$$

Cheval des Andes, 2015, Mendoza, Argentina: A big Bordeaux blend produced in Mendoza, Argentina. This wine has achieved a 98-point rating by James Suckling. Please refer to the winery's fact sheet. (GL), $$$

Kaiken, Ultra, Malbec, 2017, Los Rocas, Mendoza, Argentina: This Malbec pours into the glass reflecting a deep violet color, the nose radiates a fresh bouquet of berries evoking the senses of a classic Malbec.

This wine is not tannic but smooth, and the finish is long and pleasant. A well-balanced Malbec and very reasonably priced. (RBC), $

MAAL WINES Vineyards

bestial Malbec, 2016: This is a nice high-quality Malbec. The wine is rich in color, connected, and balanced, with soft smooth tannins. (W), $$$ biutiful, Malbec, 2018: A good entry level Malbec for folks who want to explore. (W), (($)

impossible, Malbec, 2016, MAAL Wines. This wine is ready to drink when you open the bottle and pour it into the glass. Enjoy this wine over casual conversation, with appetizers or an entrée. (W), $$

Mad Bird, Dark Malbec, 2019: This Malbec is full-bodied and reasonably priced. A terrific deal! (R), $

Patagonia

J Alberto, Malbec, 2019: This winery is in the Rio Negro Valley, which is dry which has desert like conditions. The wine is full-bodied, has lots of dark berry flavors, depth, and elegance. This is a fantastic Malbec! (GL), $$$

Australia

South Australia

Penfolds Max's Cabernet Sauvignon, 2016: This wine is a bold cabernet that starts out strong but, if left to breath, will smooth out and finish nicely. This Max's cabernet is an enjoyable value from Penfold of Australia. (A), $$

Adelaide Hills

Sidewood Shiraz, 2018: This is an Australian Shiraz with a big bouquet. This wine offers up an abundance of Shiraz spiciness and ends with a nice, weighted finish. Lots of bang for your dollar! (W), ($)

Barossa Valley

Tait "The Ballbuster Shiraz": (80%) Shiraz, (12%) Cabernet, (8%) Merlot. This is an earthy wine and extremely drinkable, smooth, and ending with light pepper notes. (V), $

Tim Smith, Barossa: (76%) Mataro, (synonymous with the Monastrell grape), (20%) Grenache, (4%) Shiraz. A big and full wine, with a little time in the glass it opens into a spicey wine with cool tannins. (i-l), $$$

Yalumba, Bush Vine Grenache: With an exquisite red color, cherry berry flavor, you could mistake this wine for a lovely Pinot Noir, but the wine is (100%) Grenache. An easy to drink wine that you open and enjoy, relaxing with friends. (GL), $

Koonunga Hills

Penfolds Koonunga Hills Shiraz/Cabernet Sauvignon 2019: This wine scores 87 to 90 points. Penfolds' history dates to 1844 in Australia and is a premier winery. This wine is deep red in color; the cabernet sauvignon (76%) is strong and accented with the pepperiness of the shiraz (24%). The grapes are sourced from all the Penfolds South Australia vineyards. This wine offers great berry flavors and a long finish. Is a great buy. (AL), $

McLaren Valley

d'Arenberg, The Dead Arm Shiraz: The color is dark and rich, full bodied, finishing with just the right number of tannins. (I), $$$

Enjoy with savory cheeses and hearty red meats.

Southwestern Australia

Clare Valley

Jim Barry, Watervale Riesling, 2017: The color of this wine is like water reflecting on a summer day. A dry Riesling with just a hint of sweetness on the finish. Very pleasant. (GL), $

Kilkanoon, Clare Valley, Killerman's Run, Shiraz: A nice Shiraz from Australia with a fun story about its origins. A bio and description of the wine is printed and available next to the wine. (I), $

Edna Valley

Pewsey Vale, Eden Valley, Dry Riesling, 2017: This wine exhibits a light platinum color, is dry and non-minerally. A very pleasant Riesling. This wine is a bargain. (GL), $

Western Australia

Hope Estate Shiraz "The Ripper": 100% Shiraz, from Australia, the "Ripper" is a medium to full bodied wine, which depends on your level of palate, regarding Syrah/Shiraz. Easy to drink, this wine is good for entertaining small or large groups or enjoy by yourself. (RBC), $

Enjoy with pork and other meat dishes.

Austria

Niederpostereich

Kamptal

Barbara Ohlzelt

Barbara Ohlzelt, Gruner Leader, 2019: A refreshing and acidic Gruner Veltliner white wine for the summer. (i-L), $

Barbara Ohlzelt, Gruner Veltiner, Zobinger, 2018: At first you will wonder if you are going to enjoy this wine, then you set your glass down. In the next sip, after the wine has sat for about 10 minutes, the wine opens, and you will probably drink the whole bottle. (I-L), $$

Canada

Niagra Pininsula, AVA

Cava Spring Riesling: This is a dry Riesling, medium-bodied with very pleasant melon and fruit flavors. An easy to drink wine that is great for outdoor patio activities or boating. (R), $

Chile

Aconcagua

Casabalanca Valley

Cuvee Alexandre, Chardonnay, Lapostolle: A big Chardonnay with a bright golden color, plenty of richness going on here. This wine is produced by one of the most well-known vintners in Chile. (GL), $$

Central Valley

Corazon Del Indio, Vina Marty, 2019: (40%), Carmenere, (35%) Cabernet Sauvignon, (25%) Syrah. This is one of Pascal Marty's premium wines produced under the Vina Marty vineyard. Decant an hour before serving and enjoy a smooth and soft tannin red blend with a hint of spiciness. (W), $

Mariposa Alegre, Cabernet Sauvignon, 2019, Gran Reserva: This Cabernet is bolder and fuller than the Vina Marty Estate Cabernet. The Mariposa Cabernet and the Estate Cabernet are both nice and balanced, offering their own unique qualities. James Suckling has scored this wine 91 points. (W), $

Vina Marty Estate Cabernet 2019: The winemaker of this estate has an impressive resume.

Pascal Marty is a graduate of the Enology Institute of Bordeaux, has stints with Baron Philippe de Rothschild S.A. and Robert Mondavi, and ended up in Chile producing the wine for Vina Marty.

This Cabernet Sauvignon will surprise not only your palette but your wallet, too! A must try. (W), $

Enjoy with any casserole dish, meats, or drink it by itself.

Maule Valley

Garage Wines

Garage wines is a boutique wine company that gathered other independent small wineries which owned small, old dry-farmed vines, to produce all natural, low sulfite wines, using native fermented yeasts and traditional wine producing techniques. The wines are all in recycled bottles.

Quinto Cuarto Solera: Think of how a ruby red port is produced by pulling together various grapes. The Garage group pulls together grapes from 2007 to 2012 mixing Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Carignan, Merlot, Petite Syrah, Garnacha, Syrah, and Cinsault by aging in old wood barrels over 2 to 4 winters. The result is a “WOW” factor! This wine is big, bold, and pungent. (EE), $$

Las Higueras Vineyard 2018-Lot 102: 100% Cabernet Franc. This is one of the best Cabernet Francs that we have ever tasted. (EE), $$$

Maule Valley

Terrnanoble Gran Reserve, Carmenere, 2018: Purplish red in color, with blackberry fruit notes and a nice spiciness; this wine has mild tannins and has consistently received high marks from the major wine critics. (GL), $

A good accompaniment with barbecued foods.

Rapel Valley/Cachapoel

Marques de Casa Concha, Camenere, 2016: This is subtle and fragrant wine that continues to please the palate with the passage of time. This is an amazing value. (GL), $$

Terrunyo, Carmenere, Concha Y Toro: This wine is dense ruby red, a nose of dark cherries, spicey with a smokey cigar taste which finishes like a truck running off the road. Fasten your seat belt. (GL), $$$

Enjoy heavy meat dishes, especially those meat sauces served over pasta.

Rapel Valley/Colchagua

Lapostolle, Cuvee Alexandre, Carmenere: A big red, nice tannins and spicey. This red holds up very nicely for the next day drinking. (GL), $$

TerraNoble 2013 CA2 Costa Carmenere: The Carmenere grape is an old grape from Bordeaux. Carmenere's parents are Cabernet Franc and Gros Cabernet and the siblings of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot. Camenere is now widely grown in Chile. This wine turns into a big red after breathing for 30 minutes. The wine maintains a nice spiciness, long finish and is reasonably priced. (GL), $

Enjoy with meats.

Elqui Valley/ Coquimbo

Elqui, 2016, Carmenere (50%), Syrah (14%), Malbec (26%), Elqui Valley: A big red wine with a low price, this wine needs one hour of breathing. Please see the winery fact sheet. (EE), $

Enjoy with hearty meat pasta dish.

Croatia

Peljesac Peninsula

Dakovack Vina Cabernet Sauvignon: This is an easy to drink Cabernet that you can enjoy on its own or with food. Good value from Croatia. (R), $

Kutjevo Wine Region

Kutjevo Chardonnay: This is nice wine to enjoy sitting out on the deck with appetizers and Asian cuisine. The wine is light and refreshing. (R), $

Dingac, 2017: Plavac Maili is a blend of old zinfandel and a small blue grape widely planted in Croatia. This region is considered the prized location for producing outstanding wines. The wine is rich, full-bodied, and robust. This wine will need to be breathed for 2 hours before drinking but is well worth the wait. A bargain for the boldness of this wine. (R), $$

Dingac Pelijesac, 2019: (100%) Zinfandel. A nice fruit forward and semi-dry wine with a terrific price point. (R), $

France

JP. Chenet, Original, Blanc De Blancs, Brut: JP. Chenet is one of France's most recognizable producers of wine. This sparkling wine is a very affordable Brut that is dry and works well by itself or with drink mixes. A great Brut for gatherings. (EE), $

Bordeaux

Chateau Carignan: This wine is (100%) Merlot, and you will want to decant it for a bit. This wine is rich, heavy, and robust. Ready to drink now! (V), $$

Chateau Du Pin: (60%) Merlot, (20%) Cabernet, (20%) Cabernet Franc, a smooth, fresh wine; an easy to drink Bordeaux. Exceptionally good value. (AHD), $

Chateau Marjosse, 2018: A nice blend of Merlot, Cabernet Franc, and Cabernet Sauvignon. (AHD), $

Virginie Thunevin, 2018: A good Bordeaux with a rich dark color. Nice value. (AHD), $

Bordeaux Superieur

Chateau Camarsac: This Chateau has been producing wines dating back to the 14th century. The wine produced today is an easy to drink Bordeaux and is reasonably priced. (AHD), $

Chateau Croix-Mouton, 2015: The vintner for this wine, Jean-Phillippe Janoueix, is known for producing wines from Bordeaux, such as La Confessions and La Croix St. George. This wine is a budget friendly Bordeaux with nice layers and is ready to drink. (AHD), $

Chateau Pasde Rauzen, Bordeaux Superieur, 2016, Maison Riviere: From the Maison Riviere family, wine producers and merchants since 1875, this wine is (35%) Cabernet Sauvignon, (30%) Cabernet Franc and (35%) Merlot. The Riviere family are known for their Gran Crus. Although this is a young Bordeaux, after 10 minutes of breathing, it smooths out into a delicious wine with low tannins. A particularly good Bordeaux value. (EE), $

Chateau Thieuley Blanc: (50%), Sauvignon Blanc, (50%) Semillon. The wine is bright and has a pale gold color. It has a nice roundness, richness, and elegant tropical fruit subtlety. A good wine with or without food. (AHD), $

Chateau Thieuley Rouge: A merlot-cabernet blend which is easy to drink and is great value. (AHD), $

Cotes de Bordeaux

Chateau Joamim Becot, 2016: (75%) Merlot, (25%) Cabernet Sauvignon, this is a beautiful full-bodied wine that is intense and polished which ends with a great finish and smooth tannins. AHD, $$$$

Chateau De Frances, "Les Cerisiers", 2018: This winery was started by Hubert De Bouard, of Chateau Angelus and Dominique Hebrard, of the Chateau Cheval Blanc, two prestigious Chateaux of the Bordeaux region; recognized around the world. This is an amazing value. (90%) Merlot and (10%) Cabernet Sauvignon. (AHD), $$

Esprit de Pavie, 2015: A full bodied Bordeaux with a deep garnet purple color. This wine is rich with lots of dark berry flavors. Decant for one hour before serving. AHD, $$

Fronsac

Chateau La Dauphine: This is another good bargain Bordeaux. The wine produces a nice thinness and opens beautifully in the glass. The blend of (90%) Merlot and (10%) Cabernet Franc is a nice grape combo. (AHD), $$

Chateau La Vieille Cure 2017: When you drink this wine, imagine that you are sharing the wine with the nobles and the king. This was a favorite wine being served from this Chateau at Versailles and the hunting lodges during that time. Located in Fronsac, this area offers some good Bordeaux values. Located west of St-Emilion and Pomerol, you can enjoy a reasonably priced Bordeaux. This wine is a mix of Merlot, Cabernet Franc, and Cabernet Sauvignon and is medium to full bodied. Let the wine breathe for an hour before serving. (AHD), $$

Graves

Pessac-Leognan

Chateau Bouscay, 2016, Grand Cru Classe De Graves: (50%) Semillon and (50%) Sauvignon Blanc, this wine is rich, classy, and elegant. With its fragrant, creamy, and dry finish, you can consume this wine with any seafood or poultry dish. (AHD), $$$

Chateau Tour Leognan, 2017: A crisp white wine with wonderful fruit notes; a good combination of Sauvignon Blanc and Semillon resulting in a dry easy to drink wine. (AHD), $$

Le Petit Havt Lafitte, 2016, by Smith Havt Lafitte: (60%) Cabernet, (40%) Merlot, this wine is produced from young vines but has plenty of weight resulting in a medium bodied wine. With dry and soft tannins, this wine is a thoroughly enjoyable drinking experience. (AHD), $$$

Chantegrive Graves: This wine is a combination of Semillon (a Bordeaux original grape, pure, clean, and fresh) and Sauvignon Blanc (a big white grape with intense flavors, such as straw, hay, grass, smoke green herbs, green tea, lime, etc., acidic, and full flavored). Chantegrive is a dry white wine that is floral on the nose and mouthwatering appealing texture, the Semillon tames the Sauvignon Blanc. (AHD), $

Enjoy with appetizers, poultry, and seafood.

Chateaux Graille Lacoste: (Sauvignon Blanc and Semillon), aromas of grapefruit, a tangy crisp taste, and a clean finish. This wine is produced by the same vintner as Chateaux Ducasse. (V), $

Enjoy with cheese and fish.

Clarendell Blanc, 2019: The color of this wine looks like it is from a crystal-clear mountain spring water. Light and refreshing. (AHD), $

Clarendell Rouge, 2015: A medium body Bordeaux, smooth with light tannins. Decant for an hour before serving. Quite lovely. (AHD), $

Haut-Medoc

Chateau Beaumont, 2017. This is the largest estate in Haut-Medoc dating back to 1772, but its wine beginnings started in 1824. This is a young Bordeaux, but you can drink it now. The wine can also be cellared for up to 10 years. (AHD), $$

Chateau Belgrave, Haut-Medoc, 2010: A heavy wine and excellent representation of Bordeaux. This wine has a great color, is low in tannins and acidity. Decant for 1 to 2 hours. (V), $$$

Chateau De LaMarque: This property dates to the 11th Century and was once an estate for King Henry V.

Now a family property for generations, this Bordeaux is fragrant and substantial. You can decant this wine for two hours, although we could only wait an hour and still thoroughly enjoyed the wine. (AHD), $$

Chateau Lanessan, 2018: We can't believe what a great bargain this Bordeaux is! wine is (52%) Cabernet Sauvignon, (42%) Merlot, (6%) Petit Verdot. The color is gorgeous; this wine exudes nice ripe dark berry flavors and has soft tannins. The wine scored up to 90 to 93 points. (AHD), $$

Quinta Do Noval, Late Bottled Vintage Unfiltered, Port: The winemaker describes this Port as follows, “intense and elegant...and a mouthful of ripe black fruit and spices”; we will leave it at that. (I), $$

Quinta Das Tecedieras, Reserva, 2015: The grape combo in this wine includes Touriga Nacional (the leading grape used in blending with Ports to add richness, depth, aromas, deep coloring, and structured tannins), Tinta Roriz (Tempranillo), Tinta Boreca (called the “Black Baroque”, a red blending grape native to Douro region), Touriga Franca (a red blending grape adding finesse), Tinta Coa (called “red dog”, a blending grape specific to Portugal), Tinta Amarela (a grape specific to Portugal, known for its rich color, nice acidity, injecting a peppery and aromatic nose).

The wine is dry and needs time to breathe but is a rich heavy wine. Contains some dairy allergens. (W), $$

Ferreirinha Callabriga 2019: 100% Tempranillo. This wine has received up to 93 points. It is bold and intense. One hour of decanting is required before serving. (V), $$

Vinha Grande Douro Red, 2018: (40%) Touriga Franca and (30%) Touriga Nacional which are the two big Port blending grapes; (25%) Tinta Roriz and (5%) Tinta Barroca, which are two table wine grapes. This blend creates a rich and intense wine which has a nice long finish. Good value. (V), $$

Warre’s Optima 20, Tawny Porto: This is a well-balanced Port, slightly sweet but refined and elegant. (RBC), $$

South Africa

Cape of Good Hope

Bloem Chenin Blanc-Viognier, South Africa: An easy to drink Viognier and very reasonably priced, resulting in a good value. (i-L), $

Paarl/Wellington

Doolhof Single Vinyard Collection, Pinotage, 2017: Thick on the middle of the tongue and a smooth lasting finish with that Pinotage finesse. Good value. (EE), $$

Stellenbosh

Babylonstoren Candide, 2020: A dry, crisp, medium body white wine with tropical notes. This wine is (45%) Chenin blanc, (28.5%) Viognier, (16.5%) Chardonnay, and (10%) Semillon. This is a good wine to serve with fruits, salads, light dishes, or to enjoy drinking on the patio. (AHD), $

Bockenhoutskloof Cabernet Sauvignon: This is a Cabernet Sauvignon with 8% Cabernet Franc added. The wine maker describes the style as “Claret like in its profile”. This cab is rich and elegant with smooth tannins. (RBC), $$$

Groot Constantia

Groot Constantia is a winery with a deep history. With a beginning that started in 1685, customers of this winery were Frederick the Great of Prussia, King Louis Philippe of France, and Napoleon Bonaparte.

Constantia Glen, Two, 2014: Sauvignon Blanc (70%), Semillon (30%), this is a rich white blend of these two grapes resulting in a delightful tropical fruit flavor. 13.5% percent alcohol. (W), $$

Grand Constance, 2015: The story goes that Napoleon, during his exile on the island of Elba, in his final days, would ask the wine Steward to retrieve a bottle of this aperitif daily, which the former Emperor would consume before retiring for the evening.

Made from 100% red and white Muscat, this wine is sweet but incredibly delicious. The color is stunning, and the flavors of caramel, toffee, and honey are delicate. This is a treat for special occasions or to end an evening.

Pair this wine with cheeses, chocolates, nuts, dried fruits, and fruit-based desserts. (I), $$$$

Groot Constantia Shiraz, 2016: All the grapes are from a single vineyard. The wine is full bodied and can use an hour of breathing to reach the wine's full potential. This is a good wine to accompany a hearty meat dish. (I), $$

Groot Constantia Pinotage: You will think that you are drinking a Burgundian style wine from Burgundy, France. It is a good representation of a Pinotage. (The Vintner's fact sheet is available for review with a full description of the wine.) (I), $$

Groot Constantia Sauvignon Blanc: Lively and fresh with tropical fruit tones. (I), $$

Klein Constantia, Estate Red 2016: (40%), Cabernet Sauvignon, (25%) Malbec, (19%) Shiraz, (16%) Petit Verdot. A nice full-bodied and elegant red blend. (I), $$

Rustenberg John X Merriman, 2013: (52%) Merlot, (38.5%) Cabernet Sauvignon, (4.5%) Malbec, (3.7%) Cabernet Franc, (1.3%) Petit Verdot, this wine, can be described as a Bordeaux blend. The winery was started in 1892 by John X Merriman. The wine will excite you and tease your taste buds. You can drink now but decant for an hour prior to serving. According to Wine Spectator, this wine can be cellared until 2023. (I), $$

Simonsig Chenin Blanc: This wine has a light straw color with a tint of green. On the nose, the wine has moderate acidity with melon and tree fruit. An easy to drink wine that is well balanced and would be great to serve at a luncheon. (I), $

Serve with Asian, cheeses, salads, shellfish.

Swartland

A. H. Badenhorst, Curator, Red Blend: Shiraz, Cinsault, and Mouvedre. A medium bodied wine with fruit and spiciness. This wine truly opens after an hour and continues to improve. A nice summer wine. (V), $

A.H. Badenenhorst, Curator, White Blend: Lots of great layers come together in this fun white. (V), $

A.H. Badenhorst, Red Blend: Shiraz, Grenache, Cinsault. This wine is not as spicy as the Curator Red blend but still has a nice body and fruitiness. A good summer wine that needs an hour to open will continue to improve. (V), $

Boekenhoutskloff, Chocolate Block, 2019: (71%) Syrah, (11%) Grenache, (11%) Cinsault, (9%) Cabernet Sauvignon, (7%) Viognier. The blending of the Cinsault and Viognier adds nice complexity to this medium to full bodied wine. This wine can easily take an hour to open, and we found that it is best consumed in one evening (usually an easy task). This wine can possibly be aged up to 2032. (RBC), $$

Enjoy with big meat dishes.

Spain

Andalucia

Jerez-Xeres Appellation

Vina 25, Pedro Ximenez: Pedro Ximenez is the white grape used to produce sherry. Vina 25 is sweet but also dry; it has a silky flavor and is dense with raisin notes. This sherry is good value. (AHD), $

Enjoy with chocolates, hearty chesses, and desserts.

Aragon

Legado del Moncayo Garnacha Vendimia Selectional Compo de Borja: Its floral notes and bright citrus flavors make this a wonderful wine for a hot summer day ride on the water. (W), (NO), $

Castilla y Leon/Biezo

Matsu- “El Picaro”: 100% Tempranillo-this is a young wine, but the grapes are from 50- to 70-year-old vines. This wine is hearty and ready to drink. Great value. (R), $

Matsu- “El Viejo”, 2019: “The old one”, from Matsu, is produced from 110 year old Tempranillo vines. The wine is aged in French oak for 16 months. This wine is complex but smooth as silk with subtle nuances. You can enjoy this wine anytime, but it will pair well with meat dishes. Decanting is recommended for at least 1 hour. (R), $$$

Petalos, (Bierzo), Descendientes De J. Palacios, 2017: A blend of Mencia (a spicy grape), and Alicante Bousechet (Grenache), this wine is highly rated by Robert Parker and James Suckling. (GL), $$

Cataluna

Valdalevia Brut: A very good sparkling wine that is fresh and dry. (I), $

Flama D’Or Cava Brut: This Cava has some weight. Dry and yet the berry flavors are ever so present. The 100% Trepas grape that makes up this wine is delicate to grow yet produces a rugged and intense wine that exudes balance and a complex structure. Absolutely worth trying. (R), $

Jumilla

Clio, Jumilla, Spain, 2017: (70%) Monastrell and (30%) Cabernet, this is one of our favorite wines; with its opaque purple color that paints the wine glass and posh fruit notes, it rounds out to a savory long finish. (V), $$$

Juan Gill, Blue Label 18 Months: Monastrell, Cabernet Sauvignon, and Syrah. Monastrell is a late ripening grape used to blend with other grapes to produce an intensity in the wine. Please see the Vintner's fact sheet. (V), $$

Enjoy with meat and heavy pasta dishes.

Priorat

Camins del Priorat, 2018, Alvaro Palacios: (40%) Grenache, (30%) Samsó, (Samsó is a grape native to northern Spain with the characteristics of the Carignan grape.), (20%) Cabernet Sauvignon, (10%) Syrah, this wine needs 30 minutes of breathing, preferably by the decanting method. After a half hour of breathing, the wine will change color from a dull red and transform into a deep ruby red. Initially the wine will have a distinct sweetness but loses that intense sweetness and mellows out into a soft wine. (GL), $$

Clos Figueras, Serras Del Priorat, 2019: This is Granacha Blanc that is hard to beat. The color is beautiful, the wine is crisp, lively, floral, and just plain yummy! We highly recommend this white wine which critics have scored 90 points plus? (AHD), $$

Font De La Figuera, 2018: (58%) Grenache. (25%) Carignan, (10%) Syrah, (7%) Cabernet Sauvignon. The grapes are sourced from the Gratallops old vines. The wine pours into a decanter a dark cherry red. We decanted this wine for three hours. The result, after decanting, was a thick layer of dark fruit on the palate with smooth tannins and worth waiting for. The wine is aged for 12 months in French Oak and integrates beautifully. A delightful red blend from Priorat. (AHD), $$$

Red blends from Priorat should be enjoyed with hearty meat dishes and pairs great with lamb chops.

La Figura Com Tu 2018: “Com Tu”, meaning like you, is 100% Grenache. This is a medium-bodied, earthy, and a bit fruity wine. The wine has a high alcohol content, so it needs some breathing. The wine scored up to 93 points. (AHD), $$

Salmos, 2016, produced by the Torres family: (65%) Carinena, (30%) Grenache, (5%) Syrah. This is a premium red blend; bold, full-bodied, intense, and concentrated. A quality wine for the lover of big reds. (VTG), $$$

Terra Alta

Edetana, 2017: (60%) Grenache, (30%) Syrah, (10%) Samsó, this wine displays a beautiful ruby red color, is pleasant, savory, and finishes with a slight sweetness that is delicate. A good bargain. (AHD), $$

Toro

Teremes: The Pinot Noir grape is considered fragile and difficult to cultivate. In the tough Spanish region of Toro where Teremes produces their Tempranillo grape, this winery owned by the Moët-Hennessy Louis Vuitton Group, grows a robust full bodied wine worthy of recognition. Teremes is their entry level bottle for their Tempranillo line up and will more than satisfy. (GHL), $$

Valencia

Beautiful Cava, Brut: A dry and delightful sparkling wine. (W), $

Beautiful Cava Rose: A nice dry sparkling Rose, great for beginnings or sipping on the deck. (W), $

Enjoy with meats and rich cheeses.

Alicante/Boarding Jumilla

Mira Salinas, 2016: (Monstrell) The Bodegas Sierra Salinas winery is located at the foot of Sierra Salinas Mountains in Spain. James Suckling gives this wine 90 points and describes the wine as follows, “fruity and straightforward with plum and cherry flavors, medium body...soft tannins and fruity finish to drink now”. Let this wine breathe for an hour, you will be very pleasantly surprised. (V), $

Alaya Garnacha, 2015: (100% old vines) Alaya is produced by the Juan Gil wineries that also produce Clio and Shaya. Juan Gil maintains an impeccable reputation for producing high quality wines.

This wine has a 16% alcohol content and needs aerating and decanting before serving. The wine is dry but finishes with a distinctive bit of sweet Garnacha. (V), $$

Drink with spicy pasta dishes.

Duero River Valley

ABADIA RETIERTA: From the Castilla y Leon region of Spain, this wine is composed of (75%) Tempranillo, (15%) Cabernet Sauvignon, (10%) Syrah. Immediately you pick up the aromas of black fruit and find the wine elegant to drink. The wine maker describes the wine as possessing the “richness of Tempranillo, the suppleness of Syrah, and aromatic elegance of Cabernet Sauvignon, which result in a well-balanced wine.” (AHD), $$

Enjoy with meat and hearty casserole dishes.

Rutherford

The Vice, Rutherford, Cabernet Sauvignon, 2018: This is a wine from the prestigious area of Rutherford-offers great value. (AHD), $$

St. Helena

Gibbs, 2019, Cabernet Franc: You Cabernet Franc lovers will go crazy over wine. Full bodied with smooth tannins. (WB), $$

Enjoy with duck, lamb chops, and steak.

Gibbs, 2019, Dusty Red: (45%) Merlot, (32%) Cabernet Sauvignon, (20%) Cabernet Franc, (3%) Petit Verdot. This is a classic Bordeaux Blend as described by the vintner. We agree with the vintner’s assessment. This wine has nice blackberry fruit on the nose, and the Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot provide a nice bite which balances beautifully. (WB), $$

Horn), (48%) Cabernet Sauvignon, (15%) Petite Verdot, (12%) Zinfandel, (8%) Petite Sirah, (8%) Syrah, (6%) Tempranillo, (3%) Merlot. A young and bold, spicy wine with a long-lasting finish. (GL), $$$

Enjoy with savory cheeses and hearty red meats

Sonoma

Alma de Cattleya, Chardonnay, 2019: A nice bright apple color with apple and pear nuances. An oak touch, soft, and a delightful finish. (AHD), $$

Alma de Cattleya, Red Blend, 2018: (60%) Syrah, (35%) Merlot, (5%) Cabernet Sauvignon. All very good blackberry flavors that will go well with hard aged cheeses, or creamy brie, and with white meat dishes. (AHD), $$

Chateau St. Jean, Cinq Cepages, 2015: This wine is a rich Bordeaux blend, deep purple in color and robust with a spicy finish. (RBC), $$$

Day Zinfandel: This is a wine for the lovers of a Zinfandel who want it dry and not “jammy”. A balanced wine that is pleasant and has a smooth finish. (EE), $$

Dry Creek Vineyards, Zinfandel: (77%) Zinfandel, (21%) Petite Sirah, (2%) Carignane, please see the Wine Spectator review. (GL), $$

Ferrari Carano Vineyard

Ferrari Carano Chardonnay Reserve: (Carneros) A beautiful dry Chardonnay with just the right balance of fruitiness, butter, and oak. (V), (RBC), $$

Enjoy with seafood and poultry.

Ferrari Carano Cabernet Sauvignon: From Alexander Valley, the wine maker describes this wine as follows, “aromas of cassis, mocha, dried cherries, mint, cola, and Smokey leather”. This cab is a sheer pleasure to consume. (V), (RBC), $$$

Enjoy with barbecue, red meats, strong cheeses.

Ferrari Carano Dry Creek Zinfandel: A particularly good Zinfandel; starts off spicy and smooths out within about 15 minutes into a lush, concentrated, rich, jammy Zinfandel. (VTG), $$

Ferrari Carano Tresor: A Bordeaux blend of (71%) Cabernet Sauvignon, (10%) Malbec, (5%) Petit Verdot, (5%) Cabernet Franc; this wine has very pleasant nuances and complexity. (VTG), (RBC), $$$$

Other Ferrari Carano Wines that we recommend: Fume Blanc, $, Merlot, $$, Sangiovese Rose, $, Siena, (A blend of Sangiovese, Malbec, Petit Sirah, Cabernet Sauvignon.) (VTG), $$

Enjoy with roasted meats and duck.

Gehricke Vineyards

Gehricke Chardonnay: For those that want to drink a chardonnay but do not want a heavy buttery or oaky taste will find that this wine will fit the order. (I), $$

Gehricke Cabernet Sauvignon, 2018: This wine has even tannins and a slight sweetness with medium acidity. A very enjoyable Cabernet. (I), $$$$

Gehricke Russian River Valley Zinfandel, 2018: This wine is produced from old vines, has a touch of 5% Petite Sirah, which gives the wine a nice accent. The result is a full-bodied, nicely structured, smooth drinking Zinfandel., (I), $$

Easy to drink and pair with a variety of light food.

Gundlach-Bundschu Cabernet Sauvignon 2015: (89%) Cabernet Sauvignon, (6%) Petit Verdot, (3%) Malbec, (2%) Merlot. This wine is a good representation of a big California Cabernet from Sonoma County. A nice long finish. Rated from 90 to 92 points. (RBC), $$$

Gundlach Bundschu Mountain Cuvee: (88%) Merlot, (12%) Cabernet Sauvignon, is a Bordeaux style blend, exceptionally drinkable. (RBC), $$

Enjoy with almost any type of food.

Ridge Three Valleys: This wine offers lively acidity but a medium bodied, blend of Zinfandel, (soft textured, dry red wine, a jammy characteristic, with blackberry, boysenberry notes), Carignane, (high in acidity and tannins, but earthy flavored and dark in color) Petite Syrah (concentrated and strong), Grenache (smooth and velvety). Nice exotic spices, with a smooth and a delightful gravelly ending. (GL), $$

Enjoy with hearty appetizers, pork, and meat dishes.

Stuhlmuller Vineyards, Chardonnay: Aromas of pear and apple with a hint of butter and oak. A nice and drinkable wine. (V), $$

Enjoy with seafood.

Ty Caton, Cabernet Sauvignon, 2018: A dense and rich Cabernet Sauvignon that can stand a fair amount of breathing, but the result is quite rewarding. (C), $$

Ty Caton, Red Wine, 2017: (29%) Cabernet Sauvignon, (29%) Petite Sirah, (17%) Syrah, (14%) Petite Verdot, (7%) Merlot, (4%) Malbec. All the big grapes are in this wine, producing a full-bodied rich red. Open this wine and let it breathe. (C), $$

Enjoy with meats and try with grilled sausages, onions, and peppers.

Los Carneros

Vinca Minor, Cabernet Sauvignon, 2018: Made with 100% organic grapes, with minimal sulfates, this wine has a nice spiciness and a pleasing effervescent finish. (AHD), $$

Sonoma/Russian River

Deloach Chardonnay, Russian River Valley, 2015: A crisp Chardonnay with a hint of apple and butter with a pleasant finish. This reasonably priced Chardonnay will go well with any light dish. (GL), $$

Deloach Pinot Noir: This wine is a full body Pinot Noir, which is dry, elegant, and packed with berry flavors. The wine maker produces this Pinot Noir in a traditional Burgundian fashion and demonstrates all those qualities. (GL), $$

Enjoy with salmon, pasta dishes in a red sauce, and poultry.

Edge Cabernet Sauvignon, 2017: An easy to drink and reasonably priced Cabernet Sauvignon. (V), $$

Hartford Court Pinot Noir: A heavy hitting Pinot Noir that starts with concentrated berry flavors and ends in a spicy finish. The wine has just enough sweetness to entertain the palate and is elegant. (A), $$

Iron Horse, Wedding Cuvee: (GL), $$$

Rodney Strong Vineyards, 2017 Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon: This is a full-bodied Cabernet Sauvignon that is not shy-shows off the wine's lushness and tannins from the start. This wine is very drinkable now. Cabernet Sauvignon lovers will appreciate this wine's price point. (A), $$

Sierra Foothills

Amador County

Easton Zinfandel, 2015: A full bodied and spicy Zinfandel. This wine is really good value. (AHD), $

Scott Harvey, 2017 Zinfandel: A medium bodied Zinfandel that is smooth and pleasing. A good budget selection for under $20.00. (I), $$

Scott Harvey, Zinfandel, J & J Reserve, 2015: This is a big Zinfandel and will maintain its composition into the next day. (I), $$

Terre Rouge/Easton Vineyards

This winery is in the Sierra Foothills/Amador County, they are one of the premiere producers of Cotes de Rhone style wines. The grapes are grown in high altitude elevations which requires aging the wines for 5 years or more. When finally released, they are ready to drink or cellar for years to come.

Terre Rouge, Enigma, 2013: (49%) Marsanne, (26%) Viognier, (24%) Roussanne, (1%), Grenache Blanc, this wine is creamy, with peach, apple, honey, and a hint of coconut. A nice white blend. (AHD), $$

Enjoy with seafood or a seafood pasta dish.

Terre Rouge, Garrigue, 2013: A pleasant Rhone style wine of Grenache and Syrah, representing good value. Serve this wine for casual gatherings or everyday consumption. (AHD), $

Terre Rouge, Grenache Blanc, Hawk Creek Vineyards, 2009: Golden in color and mouth filling, this wine has depth, and you can exchange it for a red with your food. (AHD), $

Terre Rouge, Roussane, 2013, Monarch Mine Vineyards: With a nice golden color and honey taste, this wine expands into a rich, dry, and elegant white. (AHD), $$

Terre Rouge, Syrah, 2015: This one of the easiest Syrah we have drunk; the wine goes down so fast, before you know it the bottle is empty. (AHD), $

Terre Rouge, Viognier Fiddletown 2017: This wine is round and chewy, aromatic with stone fruit nuances. A wonderful wine with appetizers, seafood, or Asian foods. (AHD), $

Terre Rouge/Easton Wines-Small Lots and Allocated

Easton Wines, Zinfandel Old Vine Rinaldi Vinyard Fiddletown 2014: The grapes are from 150-year-old vines. An elegant wine with delicate nuances. (AHD), $$$$

Terre Rouge, Syrah, DTR Ranch Fiddletown, 2007: This is the best of Syrah, with pepper, spice, and bacon, nuances, produces a meaty wine with deep minerality. (AHD), $$$$

Easton Wines, Syrah, High Slopes, Sierra Foothills, 2014: This wine is produced from grapes grown at an of 3200 elevation. The result is the very best of Syrah flavors. A masterpiece Cotes de Rhone. (AHD), $$$$

El Dorado

Skinner El Dorado Syrah, 2019: A sustainable vineyard that uses all solar power and recycled steel. The winery preserves animal habitats and use goats to clear brush.

The vineyard is in a mountain region which has granite soil and a climate that is dry and temperate. The Syrah that is produced is smooth and elegant. 93 points. (AHD), $$

Vinum Cellars, "The Scrapper", 2016, Cabernet Franc: The discoveries keep coming in from the Sierra Foothills. A silky and smooth, single vineyard wine at an elevation of 1600 feet, producing an outstanding Cabernet Franc for under $30 dollars. This is a full-bodied wine that needs breathing for an hour in a decanter. Scores up to 90 points. Cabernet Franc lovers will not be disappointed. (EE), $$

South Central Coast

Edna Valley

Wonderwall Chardonnay: A good Chardonnay, easy to drink and has just the right balance of citrus notes. (i-L), $$

An easy wine to enjoy with appetizers, chicken, pizza, seafood.

Wonderwall Pinot Noir: This wine is a light bodied Pinot Noir. The wine is reticent but still has a fresh ripe fruit element. Because the wine is aged in oak, there is a display of oaky elements. (I-L), $$

Tolosa No-Oak Chardonnay: A non-oaky Chardonnay and at a great price. (AHD), $

Paso Robles

Daou “Bodyguard”: For the fans of Petit Verdot and Petite Syrah, the combination of these the two grapes produces a full-bodied wine. (RBC), $$

Donati 2019 “Sisters Forever” Unoaked Chardonnay: A delightful white wine for a hot summer day on the deck. A bargain. (VTG.), $

Days Gone By, Saint K, Syrah: A big Syrah produced by Chris Kiranbay, who studied and trained under Herman Story. (i-L), $$

Hearty dishes.

Herman Story-Nuts & Bolts, Syrah: A rich and intense full-bodied Syrah. (i-L) (NO), $$$

J. Lohr Hilltop Cabernet Sauvignon, 2018: (93%) Cabernet Sauvignon, (5%) Petit Verdot, (2%) Malbec. A full-bodied Cabernet with Black Cherry accents. (VTG), $$

ONX Field Day 2017: (63%) Sauvignon Blanc, (28%) Grenache Blanc, (9%) Viognier. A pleasing white wine for the outdoors with appetizers. (AHD), $

Paring Red Blend Cabernet/Merlot by Jonata of Paso Robles: (50%) Cabernet, (20%) Merlot, (20%) Cabernet Franc, (10%) Petit Verdot, this is a very pleasant and brilliantly balanced red wine. (See the winery fact sheet.) (GL), $$

Penfolds Bin 600 Cabernet Sauvignon/Shiraz 2018: Based out of Paso Robles, the grapes for this wine are sourced from AVAs in California. With (78%) Cabernet Sauvignon and (22%) Shiraz, Penfolds has created a full-bodied wine. The strength of the Cabernet grapes and tantalizing spiciness of the Shiraz grapes seems to deliver the right balance. Point scores on this wine range from 91 to 95. (A), $$$

Wow, I love this wine with a big steak!

Robert Hall Viognier: Not too fruity or sweet, this wine is reasonably priced. (RBC), $

The Arborist, Vina Robles, 2019: (45%) Syrah, (40%) Petite Syrah, (10%) Grenache, (5%) Tannat. A very approachable blend, with a lovely garnet color, the wine has a smooth delivery. This wine also scores 93 points. (AHD), $

The Insider, Cabernet Sauvignon, 2019, Vinum Cellars: The grape for the Insider comes from four subdistricts of Paso Robles AVA. They are Adelaida, Templeton Gap, Creston, and Santa Margarita Ranch. This is a full-bodied Cabernet and needs an hour to decant. This wine has high scores. (See our fact sheet) (GL), $

Adelaida District

Alta Colina Vineyard, Rococo, 2017 Viognier: This winery produces small lots, and the Viognier is fresh and vibrant, with lots of tree fruit, and a nice balance of acidity. (AHD), $$

El Pomar and Genesco Districts

Vina Robles, 2019, Cabernet Robles: The vintner says the vineyard grapes that produce this Cabernet benefits from the Templeton Gap breezes from the Pacific Ocean; the terrior which includes high terrain, southern exposure, and granulated limestone produces exceptional grapes. The wine is aged up to 18 months at different intervals in French, American, and Hungarian oak barrels. With a 14.5% ALC, the wine should age nicely.

We tasted this during our South-Central Coast AVA video, and everyone loved this Cabernet. Wine Enthusiast has given this wine 94 points. Two big approvals, which makes this wine a bargain and. (AHD), $$

Santa Margarita

Ancient Peaks, Renegade, 2017: Wild dark berries, earthy, and rugged describes this wine, which is a blend of Syrah and Petite Verdot. We liked it! (GL), $$

Sanata Barbara County

Au bon Climat Santa Maria Valley, Pinot Noir, “La Bauge Au dessus”, 2016: This Pinot Noir is more of a Burgundian style wine, structured and richer. (I), $$

Au Bon Climat Santa Barbara Pinot Noir, 2018: A lighter Pinot Noir with a lovely strawberry and cranberry color. Nice. (I), $$

Santa Maria Valley AVA

Lumen Chardonnay, 2020, Chardonnay: This is a single vineyard Chardonnay with a production of only 230 cases. Fermentation is in stainless steel and French oak. The wine is crisp and fresh with wonderful flavors of melon. The wine has a very pleasant minerality which the vintner says is due to the ancient sandy soils. (AHD), $$

Oregon

Applegate and Rouge Valley

Quady North

Quady North Pistoleta White: A white blend of Viognier, Roussanne, and Marsanne with a touch of Grenache and Vermentino. This wine is bursting with fresh fruit flavors. Fabulous! (I), $$

Yakima Valley

B. Leighton Syrah/Olson Brothers Vineyard, Yakima Valley, Columbia,

Washington: You can pick your number from 92 to 97 points from the major wine critics. This wine receives only accolades. The praises are well deserved, the wine exhibits depth and complex structure and a show case for the Syrah grape. This wine will benefit by decanting and breathing for an hour. (I), $$

K Viognier, Yakima Valley, 2016: A well balanced white wine with tropical citrus flavors. (I), $$

K. Vintner's, SIXTO, Uncovered, Chardonnay: This wine is a blend of Chardonnay grapes from three old vine vineyards located in Washington State. You will immediately pick up granny smith apples on the nose, followed by a spiciness of caramel-butterscotch on the palate. An unusual Chardonnay with interesting characteristics. (I), $$

Wahluke Slope

Bookwalter Vineyards

Bookwalters Merlot Readers, 2018: Wine critics consider this wine to be a great value. This wine has scores of 90 to 93 points. The wine pours with a dark red color and berry flavors on the nose, which adds a nice spiciness with soft tannins and a long finish. (WB), $$

Bookwalter Notebook Chardonnay, 2018: This is a blended chardonnay with semillon, muscadelle, and sauvignon blanc. The slight taste of butter and fresh fruit makes this chardonnay a delight to drink. (WB), $$

Bookwalter Notebook Red Blend: A blend of cabernet sauvignon, syrah, and merlot. This is an easy to drink wine which contains all your black fruit flavors. (WB), $

Luke Vineyards

Luke Cabernet Sauvignon, 2081: A substantial Cabernet. The wine is full-bodied and delivers a finesse at the ending which distinguishes it from other Washington Cabernets we have tasted. Maybe we need to taste more Washington State Cabernets. (RBC), $$

Luke Chardonnay, Ancient Lakes, 2019: The winemaker describes this wine as “layered with notes of crème Brulé, vanilla, mango, banana peel, and baked pie crust”. We don’t really know about banana peel, but we got the rest and loved the wine. This is another of great value from Luke Vineyards. (RBC), $

Luke Syrah, 2019: A full-bodied red wine, great color with lots of intensity and depth. This wine is unbelievable with spaghetti in a meat sauce. Plan on decanting this wine for an hour before serving. (RBC), $$

Luke, The Companion, Red Blend, 2019: (60%) Cabernet Sauvignon, (20%) Merlot, (20%) Syrah. An easy to drink red blend. The berry flavor and spiciness are well balanced. This wine is very well priced. (RBC), $

Walla Walla Valley

Seven Hills Winery, Merlot, 2018: Seven Hills is one of the founding wineries of the Walla Walla Valley. This is a classic style Merlot, medium-bodied, black fruit, soft. A lovely Merlot. (RBC), $$
